MEDICINAL.

I Can do all My Own Work

"I feel it my duty to tell you what your medicines did for me," writes Mrs. Blanche Marshall, of Whiting, Jackson Co., Kansas, Box 139. "I was severely afflicted with kidney trouble and female weakness. In less than three months the trouble became so bad I could hardly walk around the house. I suffered almost everything. Seeing your advertisement in our paper concluded to write Dr. Pierce. After receiving your kind advice I immediately began taking your medicine. After taking two bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' alternately with two of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and using one box of 'Lotion Tablets' I am entirely cured. I can do all my own work without any trouble. I take great pleasure in recommending Doctor Pierce's medicines to all suffering women."

STREETS AT THE BRITISH ARMY.

Rudyard Kipling, in a poem in the London Times, appeals to the nation to adopt compulsory military service, predicting that the present ease will be disastrous. He seems at the attitude of the British toward the South African War, declaring that raw striplings from the street were sent to fight while strong men idled at home. He continues:

And ye sent them combs and pictures to help them carry your foe!

And ye vaunted your fatherless power and ye flouted your iron pride,
Ere ye (swayed on the younger nation) for the men who could shoot and ride.

Then ye returned to your tinklers; then ye counted your souls
With the flannelled fools at the whicket or the muddled cads at the goals.

Given to strong delusion, wholly believing a lie,
Ye saw that the land lay fenceless and yet let the mouths go by.

Waiting some easy wonder, hoping some saving sign,
Idle, openly idle, in the lee of the fore-seeing line.

Idle except for your boasting, and what is your boasting worth,
If ye grudge a year of service to the lordliest line on earth?

Ancient, efficient, ordered, cycle on cycle,
Life so long untroubled that ye who inherit forget.

[He proceeds to demand that "Each man born in the island be broke to the matter of war,"]

It was not made with the mountain; it is not one with the deep;
Men not gods, devised it; men not gods, must keep.

"Men not children or servants, tempered and taught to the end,
Cleansed of servile panic, slow to dread or despise,
Humble, because of knowledge, mighty by sacrifice."

NO SPRING ELECTIONS IN THE COUNTIES.

—The adoption of the amendment to the constitution abolishing the spring election of county officials will have the effect of curtailing the terms of those officials if the new constitution is not adopted. Officials elected at the election last spring will go out of office next fall, according to the belief of many, though there are some who think that the terms will be extended until the fall of next year. It is a question whether the terms will expire in the fall before or after the fall after the amendment is adopted. Some of the terms are for two and some for four years. The amendment to the constitution will not affect the elections in the cities. But there will be no more spring elections in the counties whether the new constitution is adopted or rejected, for the convention proposes to do away with the two elections in one year. The amendment to the present constitution, adopted by the people last fall, does away with spring elections in the counties.

EX-QUEEN VISITS NATIVES.—LILLOUKALANI, the former Queen of Hawaii, on her way east tarried en route two days in Salt Lake City, where she was the guest of honor at a meeting of people of her own race who have long been residents of Utah. A half-century ago Mormon missionaries went to Hawaii and began to proselytize among the natives. The missionaries made many converts and Mormonism is still one of the most popular religions in Uncle Sam's newest territory. A considerable number of Hawaiians were induced to leave their islands and seek new homes about the Great Salt Lake. They have prospered and have become quite a feature of the population of Utah. They have inter-married with the whites and most of them are farmers. Some of them have amassed small fortunes and have paid occasional visits to their native islands in the past 20 years.

A LITTLE GIRL DOES STRANGE THINGS.—Bessie Currier, 13 years old, of Elkhart, Ind., has been forced by Mrs. William Currier, with whom she and her mother lived, to leave home because of certain mysterious happenings which have alarmed the household and have been attributed to witchcraft or some occult power possessed by the girl. It is said, however, that she has caused to float through the air, water pails to upset and bedsheets to come apart.

The mother does not regard the girl with supernatural awe, but thinks the phenomena the result of trickery on her part, though the child maintains that she is not responsible for the manifestations. Bessie has gone to live with another sister-in-law, Mrs. John Currier, who lives near Elkhart. Her playmates declare that Bessie possesses "an extraordinary amount of electricity" and that when others touch her hands they feel a stinging sensation.

A FATAL DIAMOND.—There is a 200-carat South African diamond, once in the possession of Mr. Kruger, and now believed to be in the coffers of the Vatican. This stone belonged first to Meibach a Basuto chief, from whom it was
